

CHAPTER-9

COMPARISON OF ECONOMIC CENSUS RESULTS (1998, 2005 & 2013)

The Fourth Economic Census was conducted in the year 1998 and the latest Economic Census was held in the year 2013 and in between 5th Economic Census was conducted in 2005. Over the period of 15 years number of changes in terms of Economic activities and preference of employment has been observed. During the 4th and 5th Economic Census for rural area village and for urban area Urban Frame Sample blocks created by NSSO (FOD) was taken as primary unit but in the 6th Economic Census primary unit was taken as Enumeration Block created by the office of Registrar General India & Census Commissioner Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India. The purpose of using the Census EBs in urban areas is to have a single/uniform maps for lowest geographical units of urban areas, which would facilitate to synchronizing the Economic Census results with the Population Census 2011. In the 4th Economic Census household approach was adopted by taking 200 Households in the rural area and 150 household in the urban area, during the Fifth Economic Census the approach was same but the number of Households were decreased for rural area as 120 households and for urban area it remained same as 150 households.

In the fourth Economic Census the field agency was Directorate of Economics & Statistics. Statistical Personnel, Teachers, Clerical Staff & unemployed youths were engaged as enumerator as well as supervisors, during the Fifth Economic Census besides the Statistical Personnel and Unemployed Youth were also involved for field work but during the Sixth Economic Census only Statistical Personnel were engaged as enumerators and supervisors. During the Fourth & Fifth Economic Census, Public Administration was included but under the Sixth Economic Census this part was excluded as detailed information is already available with the Government. Comparison between these three Censuses has been given in the following paragraphs.
